FARM-MARKET ROAD WORK BEGINS

FARM TO MARKET ROAD UNDER WAY

Construction work has started on farm-to-market road from Ad Hall to Little River, it was disclosed at the office of County Judge Tyson Friday.

This road is eventually to be completed from Thorndale to Ad Hall connecting with Highway 36. The road from Thorndale to San Gabriel has already been completed and also from San Gabriel to a point near Sharp.

Contract was let two weeks ago to T. E. Sanderford Construction Company of Belton, and involves around $150,000.

There is now pending construction on farm-to-market roads from Ben Arnold to Clarkson, but there was no indication when the work might begin. Also there is the important matter of construction of Highway 77, contract for which has been let in part. The county was delayed in getting the right of way.

The Texas Highway Department has not made a formal request of the county to secure right of way on Highway 36 from Cameron to the Bell County line although the Department has requested the city of Cameron to get the right of way through the city, but acquisition was moving at the usual pace of the Snail.

The road picture in Milam County was improving gradually, and when the road from Ad Hall to Thorndale is completed throughout, it will be the first long section of connecting roads yet built in the county.

Unless something can be done to move forward with Highways 36 and 77, much valuable time will have been lost because of the imminence of war and the consequent need for materials.

SHERMAN MAN BUYS DRUG STORE IN CITY

Cameron's Walgreen Agency drug store has been purchased by A. C. Funk of Sherman and the store is expected to be reopened September 1.

Mr. Funk has been with the Walgreen Agency for 18 years.

The deal for the store was closed here Monday it was reported by Adolph Winfield who owns the building. He said the store is now being remodeled and renovated in preparation for the opening.

The store was formerly operated under the name of Milam Drug Company, organized here about three years ago by F. G. Blake and associates, including a number of local men.

The business, a corporation, became bankrupt and was recently purchased by the Walgreen Agency from the referees in bankruptcy. The store featured Walgreen products and also has a fountain and sandwich shop and has been very popular.

It was said here that the store will continue to be operated under the firm's name Milam Drug Company.

The people of Cameron welcome Mr. Funk as a new citizen and no doubt his store will become a popular retail drug and fountain center.

CHAMBER COMMERCE OFFICES ARE MOVED

The Chamber of Commerce has moved to the Henderson Building at First and Fannin Street it was announced Monday morning by L. G. Smith, manager.

The chamber has been located at the City Hall for the past 18 months and since the Water Company has moved into the City Hall room was not available for the Chamber.

The chamber had its offices in the Henderson Building before moving to the City Hall and Mr. Smith said that anyone desiring information may call at the new location.

PICKER PICTURE WORSENS ON FARMS

FARMERS ARE BEING POLLED ON HOUSING

Cotton pickers to harvest the 1950 crop may be hard to get since the picture has worsened a bit since the last report.

Immigration officials have frowned upon Governor Shivers plan to liberalize regulations and it is entirely possible the big gap along the Rio Grande will be closed.

There has been infiltration of communists who disguise themselves as laborers and also there has been complaint that Canastates along the border and the interior as well have more or less exploited the Mexican laborers. These conditions have combined to make it difficult to have free ingress of pickers.

To get pickers now plans have been changed and cotton farmers in Milam County will get letters inquiring about facilities for housing these people on their farms as well as the number they will need to harvest their crop.

It is also disclosed that a representative of the Texas Employment Commission, Nat Wofford will be here for a period of sixty days to handle the situation. Also included will be an interpreter.

Cotton is already coming in and it appeared a little late for anything like elaborate plans. Usually we have an over plus of plans and publicity and the mountain labors and brings forth a mouse.

If labor cannot be syphoned into this area through official channels the highway technique will be used. This means somebody will have to intercept laborers en route, stand the risk of being run over and mangled and otherwise brave the hazards of arresting traffic on the highways. They say that this is one way to get pickers.

In the meantime the city is still without facilities to handle concentration of harvest laborers and what the outcome will be no one could tell.

Harvesting cotton in the old days was a simple matter when Paw coraled the kids and the old woman, went out and picked it off the stalks and put it in a sack. Now we buck the labor market and sometimes find they put the stalk in the sack and leave the cotton on the ground.

Things like electric fans, cold beer and inside plumbing have considerably arrested the forward march of old fashioned farming.

TAME SESSION VOTES TO RAISE STREET PAY

A semblance of harmony showed up Tuesday night to make a bright spot on the black horizon of dissension that has rocked the City Council to its foundations during the past few weeks.

The council transacted, in the main, routine business but the proceedings were made a little zestful by Alderman Bob Terry who did not want the city to contract for service or a new address machine recently bought for the Water Department.

It was revealed that the service charge is $6 a quarter or $24 a year. The machine cost $455.00. The council voted to keep it oiled and serviced.

Mr. Terry who is director of the street department asked the city government to raise the salaries of all street laborers $5 per week. There are seven regular workers and the increases will cost the city $35 a week or a total of $1820 a year.

Mayor Green joined in this request with considerable solicitude for these workers and their families. There was a tremulous note in his voice much the same as was noted in his campaign to remove the oppressive sewer tax but which he has not yet

Jersey Bound Says He Will Someday Own Ranch In Texas

Mrs. H. H. Haase and son left Cameron at 1:00 p. m. Saturday for Temple where they took a train for their home in West New York, New Jersey.

Mrs. Haase and son have been visiting her parents, J. B. White, publisher, and Mrs. Leona G. White since May 1.

Bobby, now 3 1/2 years old, was born in New Jersey, and is one of 5 grand sons in the family. He says when he grows up he is coming back to Texas and buy a ranch.

Like all children who live in the East, he has had a thrilling experience in the wide open spaces of Texas.

The Bill Burns Are Parents of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burns are the happy parents of a baby daughter born at St. Edward Hospital at 10:40 p. m. Tuesday August 15.

The baby weighed five pounds, eight ounces and has been named Jane. Friends are congratulating the happy couple on the blessed event. Both mother and baby are doing splendidly.

The mother is the former Miss Foldine Rylander. The father is a partner in Marek-Burns, Funeral Home Directors, a navy veteran and president of the Cameron Rotary Club.

MILAM COUNTY HAS UNIQUE TAX STATUS

Although Milam County may not have enough to show in the way of modern progress, it still rates a 3 star county on the following items.

The net debt is not over 5 percent of assessed valuations, the tax rate was not over 80 cents, and all funds operated on a cash basis.

This information has just been released by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce in what is known as a tax survey of Texas Counties.

The assessed valuation for the county in 1949 was $17,086,166, an increase of $120,260 over 1948. In 1940 the assessed valuation was a little over $15,000,000 and this gives the county an increase of 12 percent for a ten year period. The basis of assessment is about 45 percent of actual value.

The county tax rate for 1949 was 75 cents, and has been at this figure for the last five years.

The report sets out figures covering all phases of the county's set-up, and discloses that tax collections for 1949 were 91.1 percent.

The total amount of current and delinquent taxes collected was $118,301.50.

The county reduced its debt considerably and as of December 31st, it was $157,000, and this is a decrease of $59,852 or 27.6 percent. It is further shown that sinking fund balances were $80,333.18, and all credits total $152,307.97, making the net debt only $4,672.03. The ratio of net taxes to assessed valuation was less than 1 percent.

This gives Milam County a star in the East Texas Chamber of Commerce merit system of awards. To pay off the net debt immediately would require 19 cents from each person in Milam County and while the county lacks many things in the way of modern progress, its financial condition is perhaps the best of any county in the state, or as near as any other county to a sound, basic financial condition.

The report is lengthy and cannot be printed in full, but should be seen by every tax payer in the county, not as a means necessarily of keeping down needed improvements, but to indicate the ability of the people to have anything they need without undue sacrifices.

W. A. (Bill) Morrison Campaigning For Court Criminal Appeals Sets New Pace In Texas Politics; Looks Like Winner

When District Judge W. A. (Bill) Morrison of Cameron needs to work off surplus energy he cuts firewood.

He picks out a likely Milam County post oak, chops it down, trims it, bucks it into sections, and splits it to size for his fireplace. Morrison likes to repeat the old country saying: "When you cut your own wood, it warms you twice."

Right now Judge Morrison is not chopping wood.

He's too busy running for the Court of Criminal Appeals. He got in the run-off after traveling 35,000 miles and visiting in 213 counties during the first Democratic primary campaign.

Eight Others In Field

There were eight other candidates in the crowded race. Each faced the same problem of getting their names, faces and records before enough voters to win survival for what was sure to be a run-off.

Morrison is back on the road following the same campaign technique that worked for him in the first race. He believes the old plan of getting around, meeting people, making friends and putting them to work in each locality is the best political formula in Texas.

Morrison is basing his appeal on his record as a defense attorney, and a district judge. Of all of the cases

Farmer Who Brought In First Bale Has Picked His Fourth

Walter Senkel of Jones Prairie up to Friday morning had picked 4 bales of cotton from his 1950 crop, 3 of them ginned at Weems Gin in Cameron.

Mr. Senkel was in Cameron Friday to collect the remainder of a $200 premium for producing the first bale and planned to take his fourth bale of cotton to the gin at Maysfield.

Mr. Senkel said that his crop was good especially the old cotton and is turning out well although the acreage is short he looks for a good harvest.

J. F. Weathers of Maysfield was in Cameron transacting business one day the past week.

MONEY CROP DUE TO SPEED UP BUSINESS

New cotton is rolling in from the farms of Milam County, and up to Tuesday a total of 23 bales had been received at the wharves of the Cameron Compress Company.

Gins were not as yet working on a full time basis, but may do so by next week, and certainly before this week is over, several hundred bales will be ginned in the county and received at the Compress for processing.

Cameron has a number of good gin plants, and all are ready to serve the cotton farmers, to keep up a tradition of cotton and cotton processing, which through the years has meant many millions to land owners.

Cotton is still the principal money crop from the soil in this county, and from the receipt of the first bale, business takes an upward turn and generally, there is economic stimulation in all phases of business. When new cotton comes in, it's a time to pay debts, to liquidate, and to buy. Then, too, the fall is here, a busy season into which the energy of everyone enters, to continue through to cold weather and the preparation of the soil for a new crop.

Some estimates here Tuesday place the 1950 crop at 18,000 bales. This is a far cry from 80,000 bales produced in 1920, but still cotton is king, notwithstanding the fact that the county has generally turned to diversified farming.

Doctors Recommend New Hospital Plan Being Offered Here

Doctors in Milam County recommend enrollment in Voluntary Budget Basis Hospital, Surgical and Medical Plans. A voluntary Enrollment campaign tends to increase membership.

Representatives of the Commercial Travelers Casualty Company will be in Milam County to give every person an opportunity to enroll.

Membership in a voluntary plan will make it possible for more families to be prepared to offset the financial shock which comes when they are ill or have an accident and are hospitalized or need medical care.

The doctors suggest that before enrollment in any plan that you pick a plan which fits your needs and your purse, and that you demand a precise description of the benefits, limitations, exclusions, and waiting periods of all Plans offered you.

If you enroll in a plan, read your policy carefully to understand the amount of benefits you should receive when making claim. Under the Voluntary System you buy only if you like the Plan and the price. This assures competition and efficiency in the American Way.

Thanks Merchants Here For Premium On First Cotton

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Senkel of Jones Prairie have expressed their thanks to Cameron merchants and business men for their liberal premium on the first bale of 1950 cotton produced on the Senkel farm.

"We want to thank the business people in Cameron for the premium of $200 we received for producing the first bale of 1950 cotton. We think this is a splendid thing to do and certainly, having received this money, we are doubly grateful. We wish also to thank the Weems Gin and all others who contributed to the prize list we received for the first bale."

"We think this splendid premium indicates that Cameron has a keen interest in the farmer and in demonstrating this interest, the people have shown they realize the importance of cotton production."

INTRODUCING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luko of Burlington, Route 1, announce the arrival of their daughter on August 7. The baby has been named Joyce Marie and weighs 6 lbs. and 13 ozs. The mother is the former LaVerne Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller of Burlington.

Specialty Shop Style Show Is Fashion Event of Season; Modeling Brings Out Record Number To Popular Shop Here

What the well dressed woman will wear this fall and winter was on display Thursday on the stage of the Cameron Theatre when Specialty Shop held a style show that brought out for the preview the largest crowd in the history of these events.

The smart things for Fall were advantageously shown by lovely, live models and Mrs. W. J. Donovan introduced the models with special comment on the costumes worn by each.

Modeling in the show were Misses Charlotte Collins, Diedre Denson, Virginia Graham, Betsy Caperton, Sarah Esslinger, Jo Ann McLane, Gloria Trigg, Sarah Swift, Beverly Freeman, Gwyn Wilson, who placed second in the Beauty Contest for Miss Texas of 1950, George Ann Clark and Nettie Thrasher of Rosebud and Jane Cook of Houston. Mesdames Margaret Tag, Loretta Brock, Naydine Goodrich and Mrs. Carl Black.

Mrs. Donovan gave the four important points in autumn fashions, colour, Fabris Interest, Silhouette and length. Fashions this season are desirable and wearable with the shoulders easy and simple and the pencil slim skirts for that slim sophisticated look. The college girl will wear easy going casuals and the sharpest convertibles.

Miss Freeman opened the show introducing one of the newest colors called hot orange. Her pedal pushers were of the finest corduroy called peat eroy originated by Justin McCarty of Dallas. Even in the fashion preview of fall costumes corduroy was the outstanding fabric and is destined to play an important part in each girl's wardrobe this fall.

Boy caps and colorful scarfs as well as weskits will be "Musts" for each co-ed who wishes to be in style.

Mrs. Margaret Tag set the pace for the stylish career girl in a suit of the season advertised in Ladies Home Journal designed by the up and coming Fashion designers of Texas at Nardis in Dallas. For that dress up occasion Mrs. Tag set the example wearing a black dress with velvet trimmed bolero.

Black and velvet will add distinction to the career girls wardrobe as demonstrated in the costumes displayed by Mrs. Nadine Goodrich, Mrs. Loretta Brock and Mrs. Carl Black.

Costumes originated by the national famous designers of Justin McCarty of Dallas, Tabak of California, Bobby Brooks, Carole King, Nardis of Dallas, Mary Muffett, Paul Sachs and Trudy Hall Jr., were key notes for the fall season. Tailored suits were patterned by Jaunty Junior, Koret of California, Betty Rose, Nardis of Dallas, Swansdown and Benson of Dallas.

Through the courtesy of Lack's Associate Store music by record lent an appropriate atmosphere for the occasion.

5 More Producers Of Grade A Milk Reported For Route

Five more producers of milk were being added to the Grade A milk Route in Milam County it was announced by Sam White, co-chairman of the dairy committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The route is already in operation and milk is taken up by the Borden Company and concentrated in Caldwell.

Cameron still cannot have a milk plant to process the supply. There is a great demand for milk especially at this time and Mr. White said that it is gratifying to see that more producers are joining up for selling grade A Milk.

A dairy program in Milam County may some day be realized but not until there is adequate financing on a large scale, likewise a commercial broiler program would succeed with financing on a major basis.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude for the many deeds of kindness shown us during the illness and at the death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. C. P. Gandy. We will always hold dear the memory of your comforting words and acts.

OFFICIAL FAMILY HAS CHIPS ON SHOULDER

What's cooking?

Will the official griddle be hot and will there be anything on it to sizzle when the City Council meets on Tuesday night?

That is the question and nothing is more important right now as we are looking out of these fox holes where our defense is perfect for atomic warfare.

We have been alerted unofficially to be on hand tomorrow night to see what's cooking.

It couldn't be about the meters unless a few rugged individuals want them taken out but it could be an entirely new phase of progress brought on by some new outbreak of civic itch. Let us hope that our leaders know where to scratch, for new industries are springing up all over the country.

Scientists are now buying lightning bugs and who knows but what we may be in for a boom.

Here in Cameron we don't think too much about the atomic missiles they throw around to scare dogs in the country villages but usually it is the Attum Bum that causes us the trouble.

This faithful newspaper that dearly loves to chronicle what the bumps indicate on John Q. Public's head will try to be on hand to get the facts. It is possible that the matter of a charter may come up and there may be other things as important.

On the whole it appeared that the wounded from the last skirmish in the official family may have recovered and be ready for more. On the other hand it would be better if harmony prevails and cooperation is had.

An optimist is one who sees only the down payment.

Rockdale Woman Is Home From Japan; Korean War Tough

The war in Korea has come closer home to us with the arrival of Mrs. William D. Hill from Japan and the war inflicted area of the Far East.

Mrs. Hill, Rockdalian, was with her husband in Japan before the war broke out, but when war became inevitable and the United States joined in the conflict to aid Southern Korea, her husband was immediately called for service, and she and her eight year old son were evacuated and sent home to the United States.

According to Mrs. Agnes Lowe here, Mrs. Hill appealed to the American Red Cross to send a telegram to her husband notifying him of her safe arrival to the United States. Her request was granted.

From a first hand experience with the war in Korea, Mrs. Hill reports that Americans in the United States are wholly ignorant of the sacrifices being made by American G. I.'s and their allies in Korea. Out-numbered and lacking adequate machinery and materials, the American fighting men face great odds in combating the enemy.

Kitzler Mistaken In Claim Cemetery Lot Was Preempted Here

Mrs. H. W. Brown, agent for the city in the sale of cemetery lots has cleared up a charge made by R. A. Kitzler that his burial plot in Oak Hill had been preempted.

Mrs. Brown has shown Kitzler was entirely mistaken and instead of losing his own lot was trying to claim the lot of another. Kitzler did not know where his own lot was located but since has acknowledged his error and has apologized in a letter to this newspaper.

This publication is made to exonerate Mrs. Brown in this unjustifiable charge and since Kitzler takes the blame the public will know that he had no basis in fact for his claim.

Science says the moon affects the tide. Lovers maintain it affects the untied.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Phipps and son, Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Phipps of Austin spent the week end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Baldrige and family have returned from a vacation in Galveston, Anahuac, Freeport, and other points in the southern sector of Texas.

To monopolize the conversation is to monotonize it.

Mrs. Walter Burkeen And Daughter Home From Stay In Japan

Mrs. Walter B. Burkeen and daughter, Frances have arrived in Cameron from their recent home in Japan.

Mrs. Burkeen is the wife of Walter B. Burkeen who is currently serving with the armed forces in Korea. They were living at Yokohama when he was transferred to the Korean fighting front.

Mrs. Burkeen and daughter are the first family of Cameron personnel to come back home following the outbreak of war in Korea. Her husband who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Burkeen of Cameron has 14 years experience in military service.

Mrs. Burkeen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mueck. She says that despite the bitterness of the Japanese people in the last war they now have a different attitude and are very nice and considerate of Americans now stationed in their country. She said there is very little talk of the war in Korea among the Japanese.

FRANCIS COX IS DUE CREDIT FOR BIG BAND

The Yoe High Band will begin "mobilizing its forces" this week.

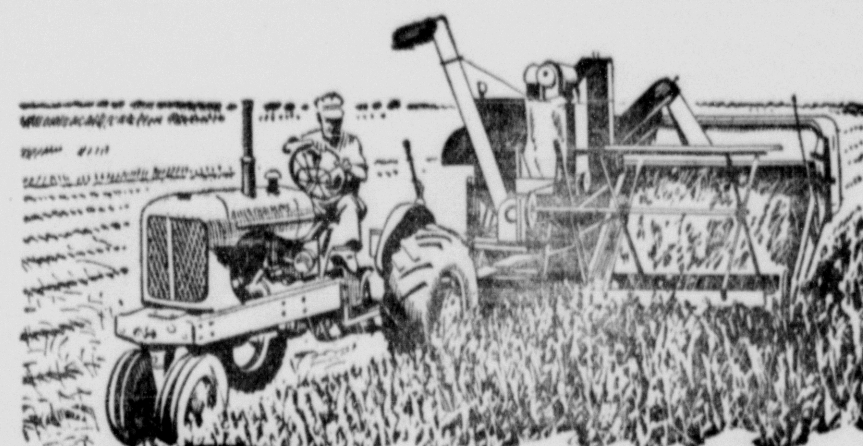

It was announced Monday that the experienced members of the band will report Thursday for their first lesson in the fundamentals of good marching precision, which has been a characteristic of the Yoe High Band for many years. Thursday's work out is designed to give preliminary instructions to members who have had no previous marching experience.

The entire band will begin work next week.

Due credit should be given to the band, directed by Francis Cox, which has given Cameron reason to be proud each time it is on parade. It works with persistence to turn out consistently good performances, and every Yoeman knows the value of its support in the football stadium.

Miss Charlotte Collins will assume the responsibility as drum major this year and fans will see a great deal of Miss Betty Dell Crook, new twirler. Veteran twirlers are Margaret Mitchell and Mary Jo Clements.

Knife Fighter Is Killed In Hearne

HEARNE, Aug. 10 —Night Policeman B. F. Bishop said he shot John Meadors, about 38, of New Baden, to death after Meadors resisted arrest with a knife tonight.

Bishop and City Night Watchman C. L. Crisp said Meadors had been accosting people on the streets and asking them for cigarettes. The officers said he approached them and tried to start a fight.

Bishop said that when he tried to put Meadors under arrest, the man drew a knife and started toward the officers. Bishop said he fired several warning shots, then fired to kill when Meadors kept attacking with his knife.

Justice of the Peace J. E. Mooney returned an inquest verdict of death by gunshot wounds.

Joe J. Marek of Buckholts made a business trip to Cameron recently.

The dime may not be as good as the dollar, but we bet it goes to church more often.

30 MEN SUMMONED FOR EXAMINATIONS

A fourth call for men to report for physical examinations has been received by the local draft board it was announced by Mrs. Loretta Brock, Chief clerk.

The call is for 30 men to report for transportation to Dallas on September 13 for physical examinations. In three previous calls a total of 60 men reported and with the new call a total of 90 men may be available for induction later on.

A large percent of all prospective inductees are rejected for physical and other reasons and the disproportionate number is necessary in order to meet draft quotas.

In the late War experience proved almost 40 percent of all men called for physical examination in the early stage of the war rejected. The modern army demands the best in man power.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hairgrove were business visitors in Dallas this week.

RIGHT OF WAY FUNDS POSE PROBLEM HERE

Financing right-of-way for Highway 36 through Cameron poses a financial problem for the city.

The State Highway Department has called upon the city to secure this right-of-way and there has been preliminary work contacting property owners but nothing like necessary energy to get the job done. A few property owners have indicated they will give their property but others have not.

The city will have to finance purchase of the right-of-way by issuing bonds or warrants. It would be less costly to issue warrants over a short period of time than to issue bonds.

It should be understood by all property owners that they continue to pay penalties under an obsolete government. For instance, the city council is limited in the amount of warrants it can issue. If warrants could be issued in an amount sufficient to pay for right-of-way and these warrants could be paid off in five years a great deal of money would be saved although the interest would be higher.

The only way the city can finance a nobligation of this size with warrants at this time would be to arrange an annual schedule to the maximum and pay them off each year. That would necessitate property owners waiting to get their money and would delay securing all of the right-of-way.

Under these circumstances bonds would have to be issued but the city should not call a bond election until it has exhausted every effort to finance this right-of-way out of current funds or short time warrants. A bond issue running 15 to 20 years would necessitate an increase in taxes as would warrants, unless the council is willing to quit all unnecessary spending.

It was not known how much progress had been made but getting a right-of-way for Highway 36 is of the utmost importance and is no job for Rip Van Winkle.

Mrs. Bonnie McCoy and children of San Marcos spent several days last week in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hillyer.

Truman S. Head with the Southland Insurance Company of Temple was a business visitor in Cameron recently.

BUSINESS MEN HERE RAISE PREMIUM FUND

A cash premium of $200 was paid by Cameron business men for the first bale of 1950 cotton produced by Walter Senkel of Jones Prairie.

Response to the premium list was the best in many years, and was sponsored by the Cameron Herald, and circulated by Max McClaren for these newspapers.

The premium for the 1951 bale will be ready and waiting for the farmer who brings it in if agreeable with those who feel that the first bale premium is a proper appreciation of cotton, still our major money crop.

Generally, the business men here appreciate this fact and they have demonstrated that they want to pay a premium for the first bale. It was impossible to see everyone, and there are many who would have contributed had they been solicited. If there are those who wish to contribute to the premium fund, they may do so, and the money will be held intact for the 1951 premium. The subscription list was closed at 10 a. m. Thursday and a small surplus has been carried over for the 1951 award. These newspapers are very glad of the opportunity to serve in this way, and below are the names of all who contributed this year to the premium which is limited to $200 in cash:

Cameron Compress, First National Bank, Citizen National Bank, Killen Food Market, Easlinger Grocery, Cheeves Bros., J. C. Penny Co., Caperton's Five and Ten Cent Store, Culpeppers, Schiller Pharmacy, F. J. brought officially to the attention of the council.

Alderman Bob Terry joined heartily in this request, and the council voted unanimously to hike the pay of the men who keep the fox holes open to traffic.

The council voted to discontinue furnishing free water to the churches. This request was made by Alderman John Andres who said he saw no reason why churches should have free water when no other utility gives free service.

This will hit the Baptist and Christians harder than any other churches because their baptistries hold a lot of water and they are slightly strong on immersion. Other churches are more nearly adapted to the drouth. (More to come)

The question of revenue from the parking meters was discussed. The council seems to have stumbled on to the first sensible thing in years about saving money and will create a special fund to be spent on the streets. Of course it will be wasted because the city has no plans and no paving contracts.

Alderman Bob Terry asked the Council to prohibit the use of the streets by some automobile dealers who have been using the streets for used car lots. The council voted to instruct City Marshall Joe Richter to proceed at once to have these old cars taken off the streets to give more room in the areas where there are no parking meters.

Cameron has a number of merchants who utilize the side walks and it has been suggested on several occasions that if they move all their goods out on the sidewalk they would have to pay no rent.

The council is striking a blow at the right spot in clearing the streets of these obstructions for free use of the thoroughfares for merchandising purposes has been an abuse for years. They will not give it up without a struggle and the City Marshal may have to put on his hat.

In the old days the civic struggle revolved around the apple and lettuce boxes on the sidewalks. That was before the introduction of barber poles and fire plugs.

The council was in a much better mood and voted to buy a bunch of chairs for the firemen to sit in at their meetings but took no action on a matter brought up by Alderman Perkins that a Taxi Company would institute street busses if the council would give a franchise. The Company owner said he would buy out another taxi firm.

The city, cannot under the law, give an exclusive franchise, and none has been asked for. The council took no action on this matter.

On the whole the meeting was a tame one with other routine matters coming up and the representative of this newspaper was given a special chair alongside the Mayor.

Of course they were still looking at each other like mountain feudists but no shots were fired and knucks were kept under cover.

enlisted in the army as a private. Three Years In Europe

He served more than three years in western Europe as an agent in the Counter Intelligence Corps and won four battle stars. After the war he was elected district judge without opposition. He is a past commander of the American Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and is Chief de Gare of the 40 and 8 Voiture Locale. He is also chairman of the Milam County district, Boy Scouts of America.

Morrison's campaign literature makes much of his experience on the bench and energy saying. "At 41 years of age, Judge Morrison will bring to the Court of Criminal Appeals the full vigor of early maturity. The volume of cases that this court reviews requires the employment of a tremendous amount of energy in the part of the members of the court."

"The addition of one younger, but experienced judge to the court will be most helpful in the administration of justice."

Morrison and his backers recognize the fact that Robert L. (Bob) Lattimore, his run-off opponent, has a name that has proved valuable in Texas politics. They are telling as many voters as they can reach that Lattimore is not kin to the family of the late Judge O. S. Lattimore of Fort Worth.

CAMERON GUARDSMEN NOT INCLUDED IN CALL

The governor's office announced tonight that "certain units" of the Texas National Guard were being alerted for active duty.

The office made the following release:

"At 9:30 p. m., the governors office received a communication from the secretary of the army designating certain units of the Texas National Guard to be alerted for ordering into active federal military service by the area commander concerned. These units will be sent to their training stations not now designated at a date not earlier than 30 days from this date. The message received by the governor has been transmitted to the adjutant general of Texas."

William L. McGill, executive secretary to Gov. Allan Shivers, said no identification of the units could be released through the governor's office.

"Defense restrictions prohibit releasing numbers of the units," McGill explained.

Texas units include the 36th Infantry division, 49th Armored division, certain non-divisional units, and the air guard.

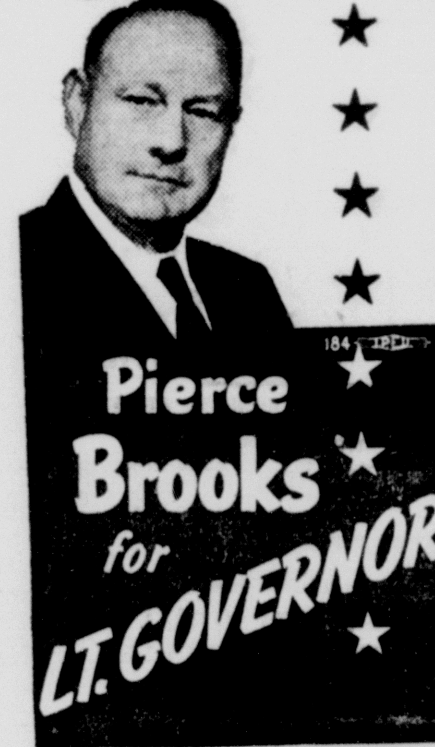

It was learned here Saturday morning the anti-aircraft battery of the National Guard stationed in Cameron nor any other unit of the Guard in Central Texas had been alerted for duty.

First Fines Imposed In Parking Meter Violations Here

Violation of the parking meter ordinance brought on a session of Corporation Court here last Tuesday when Mayor Green heard complaints filed and in the majority of these cases the offense was failure to deposit coins in the parking meters. Four cases were dismissed when it was found they were not actual violation of the ordinance. Twelve paid fines of $1.00. This left a total of 21 cases not disposed of by the Mayor.

Cases filed by the officers are not placed on the regular docket and are being recorded in a file. Mayor Green as recorder of the Corporation Court will hold sessions on Tuesday and Thursday of each week, it was said.

Dear Caldwell has returned from an enjoyable vacation in Texas City and Galveston. He has returned to his duties at Tex Miller Sandwich Shop.

RAY C. KIRK KILLED NEAR NEW WAVERLY

Ray C. Kirk, 30, a former resident of the Liberty Community, was killed in an oil field accident near New Waverly at 8:20 a. m. Thursday, August 10.

Mr. Kirk, who is the son of W. C. Kirk of Liberty, was working for the York Oil Company in drilling operations in New Waverly and was killed when machinery collapsed and fell on him at the derrick where drilling was in operation.

The body was received at Marek-Burns Funeral Home in Cameron at 9:30 Thursday night, and was due to remain there until funeral services on Saturday, August 12 at 2 p. m. at Liberty Church. Services were to be conducted by Rev. Millard Brown of Rockdale with interment in Liberty Cemetery, and the Marek-Burns Funeral Home directing arrangements.

Mr. Kirk lived in Conroe, but was working in the New Waverly oil fields some distance away. He left his old home at Liberty some weeks ago and had been with the oil company for some time. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. LaVerne Kirk and one daughter, Linda Mae Kirk of Conroe; father, W. C. Kirk of Liberty, one brother and two sisters as follows: Willie C. Kirk of Magnolia, Arkansas, Mrs. J. W. Brashear and Mrs. J. P. O'Neill of Galena Park, Texas.

Friends wish Miss Nell Mayes a speedy recovery from her illness in Newton Memorial Hospital.

Parking Meters Here Showing Up Well In Money Return

Cameron's parking meters were yielding a financial return much better than expected and Alderman Bob Terry said that as a member of the city council that put the meters in, he is well satisfied.

Marshall Terry, officers in charge of enforcing regulations said a total of $210.09 was taken from the meters in the past week. Mr. Terry was doing an excellent job supervising the meters.

Mr. Terry pointed out that when people know the real value of the meters the financial returns will be even greater and pointed out that the returns last week will bring almost $11,000.00 a year if the present average is maintained.

The meter system was working out fine especially for people in the rural sections and other visitors who must transact business in the city for they can now find a place to park.

200 BALES OF NEW COTTON NEXT WEEK

Eleven bales of new cotton had been received at the wharves of the Cameron Compress Company up to Saturday morning it was reported by P. W. Davis, manager of the Compress.

Mr. Davis said that it was anticipated that the Compress will receive around 200 bales next week. This harvest development would indicate rapid maturity of cotton, due to the continued dry, hot weather, and the harvest season may be accelerated as a result.

There was no estimate from reliable sources on the production figures for the County this year, but due to a sharp cut in acreage the crop yield cannot be as large as 1949 unless the acre yield is greater than all indications warrant.

Because of Government guarantees, the price of cotton as well as seed will continue good, and the cotton crop in Milam County will continue to be the greatest in money return.

Farmers may need harvest labor at an earlier date than was first thought because of continued dry, hot weather, although crops in the bottoms are late due to abnormal early season rains. Continued heat will bring about earlier maturity, and the general movement of the crop should be well under way within the next two weeks.

Registering Heat Is Out Of The Question The Thing Is Broke

Gauging temperature in Cameron is now largely a matter of guess, since the Registration equipment of the Water Company has been broken.

Usually a man may know how high the temperature is by counting the beads of sweat on the nose of his neighbor as he makes his way toward the nearest electric fan, but we have been using these here modern devices so long that we have lost all aptitude for diagnosis.

It would be a wonderful thing since the city has taken over the water works if they could cut down on aldermen salaries for one year and buy a weather gauge.

Until such time as this equipment is replaced this newspaper will be unable to report correct temperatures.

They say you are an old timer if you can remember when a bureau was a piece of furniture.

REDS ARE RETREATING AS AMERICANS FIGHT

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 10 — American troops in the south drove today to the Nam River slightly more than three miles east of the Communist base of Chinju, and the enemy retreat is now "in the nature of a rout."

In a gain of four miles U. S. patrols swept down from the hills east of Chinju to reach the Nam which lies in a low plain before Chinju.

A Korean war release issued by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the Americans had shattered the Communist defenses and sent the enemy into retreat toward Chinju.

A headquarters spokesman said the North Koreans' Sixth Division, defending the city, could not disengage itself from the American attack long enough to take up previously prepared positions.

"This is a retreat," the spokesman said. "It cannot be called a withdrawal."

A dispatch from Eighth Army headquarters said patrols from the Fifth Regimental combat team on the southern arm of the American offensive had joined patrols from the 35th Regiment, of the northern prong, at Pansong about 12 miles east of Chinju early today. The front dispatch said there was no indication whether many Red troops were trapped in this American pincers since the U. S. forces had been cleaning out the enemy between the two prongs as they went along.

The Americans captured much Communist equipment abandoned hastily by the enemy in their flight.

Although the 35th Infantry Regiment troops of the northern prong in the southern offensive made the day's most spectacular gain, the heaviest fighting was being waged in the Naktong River bulge bridge head about 25 miles southwest of Taegu.

MacArthur's announcement said the 24th Division was attacking the bulge but the enemy continued to reinforce its foothold on the east bank of the river, which has been the Allied western defense line.

The headquarters spokesman said captured North Korean orders indicate that the enemy attaches first priority to the Naktong River crossings being tried by the Communists' Second and Fourth Divisions.

The North Koreans along the Naktong have been ordered to hold all ground taken at "all costs," indicating they will try to make new crossings despite the heavy losses inflicted upon them, the headquarters spokesman said.

In the Naktong bridgehead battle the Communists had about 4,000 troops across the river trying to break through the American lines and sever the supply line from the port of Pusan to the temporary capital at Taegu.

RESERVE OFFICERS GET SUMMONS FRIDAY

A major step forward in mobilizing man power in the United States for war was taken late Friday when the army and the Air Corps called up 59,444 reserves.

Included in the number are 9,444 officers from the grade of lieutenant to captain and in additional 1582 officers in the medical, dental, and veterinary corps.

So far as known, no officer of the reserve corp in Cameron has been ordered up for active duty.

Mobilizing men for the armed services in such large numbers was taken to indicate that the world situation has become increasingly worse during the last 10 days and there was unmistakable signs that the civilized world must soon defend itself against Red Russia.

United States forces in Korea had driven the Reds back on four fronts and despite this progress it appeared likely that the United Nations might not be able to hold the bridge head in Korea. Optimistic reports were issued from the headquarters of General Douglas MacArthur in the face of mounting reverses and increasing casualty lists. In Europe Friday the free nations voted to pool their military strength, and it appeared that the nations were rapidly coming to realize there is no other way out except war.

In addition to the number of reserves, draft boards throughout the United States were being called on for additional man power and President Truman said that by January 1 or sooner he would ask Congress for compulsory military training as a guarantee for the future of the armed services.

Truck Driver Escapes Injury In Wreck Near Causeway Here

Lonnie Graves of Caldwell escaped possible fatal injury around 8 P. M. Friday when a truck he was driving plunged into a ditch near the east approach to the causeway across Little River.

Sheriff Black was called to the scene of the wreck and reported that Graves was driving the truck for the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Caldwell and the machine went out of control and crashed into some trees near the right of way as it plunged into the ditch.

Mr. Graves escaped with only minor injuries and later returned to his home in Caldwell.

Sheriff Black said the truck was almost completely demolished and contents were scattered along the highway and may have been a total loss.

Mr. Graves was on his way to Temple to deliver a truck load of soft drinks when the accident occurred.

Wealth In The SOUTHWEST

Twenty-five years ago only about one-fifth or 20 per cent of the agricultural income in Texas came from the sale of livestock. Today more than 45 per cent of the state's agricultural income comes from that source.

This situation, coupled with the fact that more than one-third of all the farms in Texas are operated by tenants, is creating a great need for a practical long-term lease or rental agreement. Both landlords and tenants are interested in working out long-term rental agreements that will prove mutually beneficial. Involved are such items as the division of the initial cost of the breeding animals, the division of the income from livestock, how to divide the costs of improving pastures or sharing the supplementary pastures, soil building crops and the like.

Rubber Roads Save Money

A rubber highway is attracting attention just outside San Antonio, Texas. It's only 500 feet long, but that's enough to show whether rubber is the answer to the tremendous road maintenance bill in that part of the United States.

If all roads made with a surface of natural rubber in powder form mixed with asphalt stand up as well as the rubberized stretch of U. S. Highway 81, millions of dollars may be saved by the states.

Although the section near San Antonio is the only such experiment under way in Texas, similar experiments are being made in Virginia, Minnesota, Ohio, and Canada. Behind the tests is the Natural Rubber Bureau, with headquarters in Washington.

Came from Europe

European engineers developed the first usable mixture of asphalt and rubber. When Hitler's tanks rolled into The Netherlands they struck a section of rubberized highway outside Rotterdam, Holland. Reports are that the road there is still in excellent condition despite complete lack of repairs.

During 1949 the United States spent about $1,750,000,000 for new highway construction and $1,200,000,000 on maintenance. Some day this nation may have all the first-class highways it can use, but the problem of maintaining them will continue — unless some super-durable highway, like a rubber one, can be found.

There is no shortage of natural rubber at the present time.

Cutworm Met His Doom

When cutworms began destroying cotton and vetch crops in Lamar County, Texas, last year, W. L. Scott, county agent, recommended a mixture of 5 percent DDT and sulphur. This proved satisfactory, as did spraying with Toxaphene and DDT.

They Carry Cork Germs

Sweet potato growers will be interested in knowing that insects have been discovered which transmit the internal cork disease of sweet potatoes. One such carrier is identified as the green peach aphid (myzus persicae). One or two other insects are suspected, such as a small leafhopper, according to reports from Dr. A. A. Dunlap of Texas A. & M. College.

MAY SAVE PIGS

The installation of guard rails and a pig brooder in the farrowing house may save many a baby pig from being crushed or chilled. Hogs must live and be healthy if they are to be profitable.

How My Faith Has Helped Me Through Life's Storms

By J. C. PENNEY

Nationally-Known Merchant

One of four store managers wrote me recently that these times tend to fill everyone with pessimism. That should not be.

We should recognize our times for what they are—periods of tribulation but not of pessimism. They should inspire us to re-examine our faiths and to re-establish our convictions even more firmly.

As long as we have any faith at all in God, we must know that He is all-powerful, that justice and right are His will for the world, and that eventually His purpose will be established here on earth. Good emerges slowly, but we must not doubt its final outcome.

And just as with individuals, so as a nation will our fate be determined by our choice of the hard right, instead of the easy wrong. America was founded in prayer, in faith, and in the heroic spirit of sacrifice. Comfortable living in easy-going years tends to soften us, and both our spiritual and our physical muscles become flabby.

Times like the present are testing periods. The harder they become, the more determined we should be not to be infected by fears which bedevil the world.

The present state of the world, and of people in it, does not shake my faith in the ultimate triumph of freedom and justice.

From a worldly standpoint my parents were humble folk. My father was an old-school Baptist minister who preached the better part of his lifetime, and he never took one penny for it. He earned his living as a farmer. Though brought up strictly, I have always been thankful that my parents were God-fearing, for I learned early to honor and obey them—and also to work hard.

If I could get a message over to the youth of this country, it would be that success in life does not depend on genius. Any young man

Face Powder For The Heart

Talcum powder, which for generations has made shiny feminine noses presentable, is being used to relieve ailing hearts.

A surgeon in New York Medical College says that powder has been blown into weakened heart muscles to create a stimulating irritation. The treatment is used on persons stricken with a condition that closes a branch of the arteries supplying blood to the heart.

Of 42 persons operated on by his staff, 27 report they now are leading normal lives.

After slitting the pericardial sac, which encases the heart, the surgeon injects talcum powder into the sac by blowing. The talcum irritates the area and creates a new blood supply.

In persons who suffer from this form of heart trouble there may be an almost complete lack of blood supply to the heart muscle. Increasing the supply by talcum powder irritation remedies this dangerous condition, as the doctor reports it. The powder remains in the sac for years without undergoing any change, research has proved.

How to Hake Rolled Hem

A rolled hem is recommended for fine lingerie, neckwear, handkerchiefs, and baby clothes. It may be used on a bias or straight edge. Roll the edge of the fabric between the thumb and first finger, toward you. Then catch the roll in place with fine hemming stitches. Use a fine needle and thread.

Food More Molasses

Based on the results of two feeding trials by the Texas Experiment Station, citrus molasses has a relatively greater feeding value when fed at a level of 4 pounds per head daily to fattening cattle than when at levels of 2 and 3 pounds.

Plastic Curtain Is Favorite Item Now

There's a reason for the popularity of plastic accessories in the home-making field. Plastic products are long wearing and easy to clean. More than that, they are truly a beauty asset in the home.

Plastic curtains have been widely accepted by homemakers—and for good reason. Not only are they economical and work-saving, but they add loveliness to home decor.

Once, when plastic curtains were placed on the market, homemakers dressed kitchen windows with these practical items. Bathroom and playroom also were placed in the "practical accessories" category.

It's little wonder homemakers are clamoring for plastic curtains to add hospitable appeal to the appearance of their homes.

Unsightly Hair On Face Is Solved Easily By Milady

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

The way letters avalanche into my mail box asking, "What can I do about unsightly hair on my face?" you'd think this problem constituted a crime liable to severe punishment.

As with all other beauty problems, the only "crime" involved is in not doing something constructive about it. That's why this column is only too happy to answer such pleas and help you determine the best corrective measure.

Among a number of safe and sound ways of taking care of superfluous hair on the face, the cheapest and quickest is bleaching. You need go no farther than your favorite beauty salon to find the necessary equipment and expert technicians.

Professional bleaching not only lightens the hair so that it is less noticeable but regular sessions will tend to destroy the hair altogether. Once a month is about the right spacing between bleachings.

Caution: Be sure to have a patch test on your arm before allowing any bleach whatsoever to be applied to your face. You may find that you are allergic to one bleach and will then have to experiment with another bleach in a second patch test.

When you have found the bleach that agrees with you and gets results, stick to it. If you so desire, you can then transfer the scene of your operations to the privacy of your own room.

I can also advise one home-made and home-applied bleach as being both safe and efficient but perhaps a bit slower: To three tablespoons of white henna, add 5 to 10 drops of household ammonia, to this concoction add enough peroxide to make a thick paste. (You can get all these ingredients from your druggist).

Apply your paste with a new toothbrush to the desired areas in masklike thickness. Keep it on until it dries completely. Then, rinse it off with clear, warm water. If your skin smarts, pat on a sparing amount of a pure skin oil.

I know you are also wondering about electrolysis. This treatment is expensive and requires a great deal of time. It is safe and for some women, permanent. But it is not something you should undertake lightly—certainly not without consulting your own physician.

Try Easy Method Marking Patterns

Pattern markings are there for a purpose. They are included to simplify your sewing and to assure accuracy in putting together the garment. However, many women avoid making markings because they require a little extra time and attention.

Try this easy method for marking patterns. Pull a double thread about 12 inches long over a piece of soft chalk a few times, until thread is well chalked.

With no knot in the thread, stitch through all the thicknesses of the material, at the point to be marked, and pull the thread through. If the material has enough body to hold the chalk, all layers will be marked both inside and outside.

Plain Towels Best To Make Beachwear

When it comes to beach wear, there's nothing so practical as terry cloth toweling. You can fashion a robe, sun suit, beach bag and even a bathing suit of bath toweling. This fabric washes beautifully, and takes to water like a duck.

The towel for one beach outfit should be 20x40 inches or larger. Wash cloths should be 12x12 inches. Three of the wash cloths should match the toweling. The other three should be in a contrasting color. The outfit also combines dark blue and chartreuse. But you may fashion your outfit of toweling in your own particular color choice.

Additional requirements for making the beach outfit are three yards of one and one-half inch grosgrain ribbon in the color of the toweling and three yards of grosgrain ribbon in a contrasting tone. You'll need six large buttons and a yard and one-half of bias binding.

Now to make the outfit: Fold the towel in half and slit, rounding it slightly for eight inches at the center for the neckline. Seam the sides, leaving six inches at the top for armholes. Bind with the contrasting ribbon.

Sew three buttons on back shoulder edge at each side. Stitch bias binding to front edge for button loops and the top is finished.

Eleanor Roosevelt Names Her Choice

One of the world's most influential women—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt—traveled to Sweden recently to unveil a statue of her husband, the late Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Mrs. Roosevelt was asked by the Swedish people to name the most remarkable woman she had ever met. After brief deliberation, Mrs. Roosevelt named Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, India's ambassador to the United States and sister of India's prime minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

Said Mrs. Roosevelt: "She always says all the things a man would say and uses all her woman's wiles to say them. And she always looks lovely in her long colorful Indian robes, in the United Nations."

What a smart little girl she is in this fashion-right jumper! It has cuffed shoulders, basque top, whirly skirt and Peter Pan blouse. Practical—and delightful!

Pattern 9226 comes in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10. Size 6 jumper, 1 3/4 yards 35-inch fabric; blouse, 1 1/4 yards.

This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step.

Honey Offers Variety Uses

Have you noticed honey prominently displayed at the grocery store lately? There's a reason—it's on the plentiful list. Bees worked overtime last year, and the resulting output of honey came to almost 227,000,000 pounds. For your information, that's ten per cent above the figure for the previous year.

Being an astute home-maker, you will be quick to take advantage of the oversupply.

To some, honey is merely an excellent idea for a rough throat, or a delightful spread for a hot biscuit. But to cooks in the know, honey has a wide catalog of uses. All the way from the breakfast grapefruit to sauce for the evening ice cream, honey is the source of delicate, intriguing flavor.

The quick and easy way to get the good out of honey is to spread it on toast, waffles, muffins, pancakes, and other hot breads. But honey has a more important role in the kitchen. Use it for making such things as candied sweet potatoes, custards, puddings.

Remember honey to make a glaze for ham, to sweeten fruits and cereals. And with picnic time approaching, use honey to whip up irresistible sandwich fillings. For instance, honey and peanut butter.

A Billion Dollars In Livestock

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics valued Texas livestock at $1,106,506,000 on January 1, 1950. Beef cattle, 8,658,000 in number, led with a value of $900,432,000. Milk cows came second, with 1,296,000 head valued at $180,144,000. The total of all cattle is slightly above that of 1949.

The number of sheep on ranches and farms on January 1, 1950, was 6,821,000 as compared with 6,613,000 last year and 9,545,000 in the period of 1939-1948. The number of other livestock on January 1, as estimated by the bureau, as are follows: Goats 2,246,000; hogs 1,701,000; horses 352,000; mules 139,000; chickens 27,384,000; turkeys 755,000. The report shows a decline in numbers of sheep, goats, horses, mules, turkeys, and chickens. The number of horses has dropped from 565,000 during the 1939-1948 period to 352,000 in 1950, and mules from 409,000 to 139,000.

That Rooster Will Make Good Salad; So Get Out the Ax

If you have a rooster running with your flock, get the ax, chop his head off, and use him for Sunday dinner. He will make good chicken salad. If you have more than one and more than you can use at home, crate them up and pack them off to market. The hens will lay just as well without the roosters and the eggs keep better.

The only function of the rooster is to fertilize the eggs. If you are not hatching eggs, and you will find it much better to buy good chicks from a good hatchery than try to hatch them yourself, there is no need to have him around. His crowing is not going to encourage the hens to lay more.

The fertile egg will begin to incubate very slowly at about 70 degrees. When the temperature gets above 90 degrees, as it will frequently do from now on, the germ begins to develop rapidly, and then dies, causing a blood ring which makes the egg unfit for food.

If there are no roosters in the flock and the eggs are infertile, there will be no germ development. While hot weather won't do an infertile egg any good, the egg will hold its quality much better than a fertile one.

Hundreds of thousands of eggs spoil every year because they are fertile. If we could persuade all of our farmers to get the axe and "swat" the roosters, it would mean thousands of dollars saved.

Don't put it off; the weather has already turned warm and will get even warmer next month and the next.

Sirloins Are Best Broiled

If the occasion is a festive one, steak is in order. It's a perfect food choice because it's so easy to prepare. And you know that ease of preparation is important now, when long hours in the kitchen are definitely out of the question.

Another good reason why broiled sirloin steak is a proper menu choice this time of year—or any time—is its wonderfully satisfying goodness. What could be more tempting than a steak broiled delectably brown on the outside and tender and juicy within?

When ordering steak, have it cut one to one and one-half inches thick. The fat edges should be cut in several places, to prevent curling during the cooking process.

Pre-heat the broiler and place the broiler rack so that the top of the meat is about two inches from the heat. First broil one side to the desired brownness. Then season with salt and pepper.

Now turn the steak by inserting the fork into the fat (not into the lean meat) and broil the other side. Season the steak and spread lightly with butter, if desired.

HAPPY DAYS NOW—NOT CONSTIPATED

"I feel happier, younger now, not constipated! Eating your ALL-BRAN does so much for me! What wonderful relief, after so many pills and medicines. Ever your friend," W.H. Rooney, Detroit 2, Mich. Just one of many unsolicited letters from ALL-BRAN users. If you suffer from constipation due to lack of dietary bulk, try eating an ounce of crispy Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily, drink plenty of water! If not completely satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich. Get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Talk About Joan Crawford Is Especially Nice Nowadays

Hollywood is saying the nicest things about Joan Crawford's latest picture, "Harriet Craig." With Miss Crawford's newest movie appearance, she proves to be one of film-land's most valuable properties.

Wendell Corey, who gave an outstanding performance in "No Sad Songs for Me," is co-starred with Joan Crawford in the picture. His role in "Harriet Craig" gives him further opportunity to display his superb acting ability.

Miss Crawford never shirks work. An active person in various charitable enterprises about town, she is best known as a doting mother of four adopted children. Recently she announced she would adopt a fifth child.

Miss Crawford was rushed to the hospital when she suffered from complete exhaustion. She had worked almost around the clock—23 hours—in "Harriet Craig."

A constant companion of Joan is her French poodle, Cliquot. He accompanies the star everywhere and is never absent from a movie set on which she is working. An intelligent pet, he knows enough to stay out of scenes being filmed.

KATHLEEN Ryan is Hollywood's newest Irish importation. She's a tall, calm beauty with freckles, brown eyes, and red-brown hair. Since she was 14, she has been her present height—five feet, seven inches. It used to cause her much agony.

Stage-acting helped Kathleen conquer her inferiority complex. "It's a question of forgetting yourself," she says. "If you have an inferiority complex, it means you have a lot of ego. If you project yourself and give yourself to other people, you overcome it."

Miss Ryan will be seen in "The Sound of Fury." She plays the wife of a jobless former G. I. (Frank Lovejoy), who is forced to steal to support the family.

ANOTHER Hollywood actress, singer, and dancer, June Haver, is hospitalized. Miss Haver is reportedly suffering from an internal injury that may require serious surgery. In any event, she will not be able to work for several months.

Eddie Cantor and his wife are in Israel, where the comedian is serving as national chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

Jackie Coogan has quit show business to sell a kitchen gadget. "I just ran out of gas," shrugged the 35-year-old Jackie.

Joan Evans is only in her teens. But that hasn't prevented her from playing grown-up roles in films. The beautiful actress is one of the most popular young women in Hollywood's social set. She is seen often with grown-up male actors. Her most recent escort was reported to be Henry Lewis, who accompanied Joan to a movie preview in Hollywood.

Harold Lloyd, movie comedian of silent days, is now a grandfather. His daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Elizabeth Ross, gave birth to a son.

Mae West is making plans to build a $1,000,000 casino in Las Vegas, Nev. She will run the venture herself.

The name Meredith Willson means music. Both in radio and movies, the fortyish composer and conductor has gained distinction for his musical genius. Which all goes to prove that piccolo players can come to good.

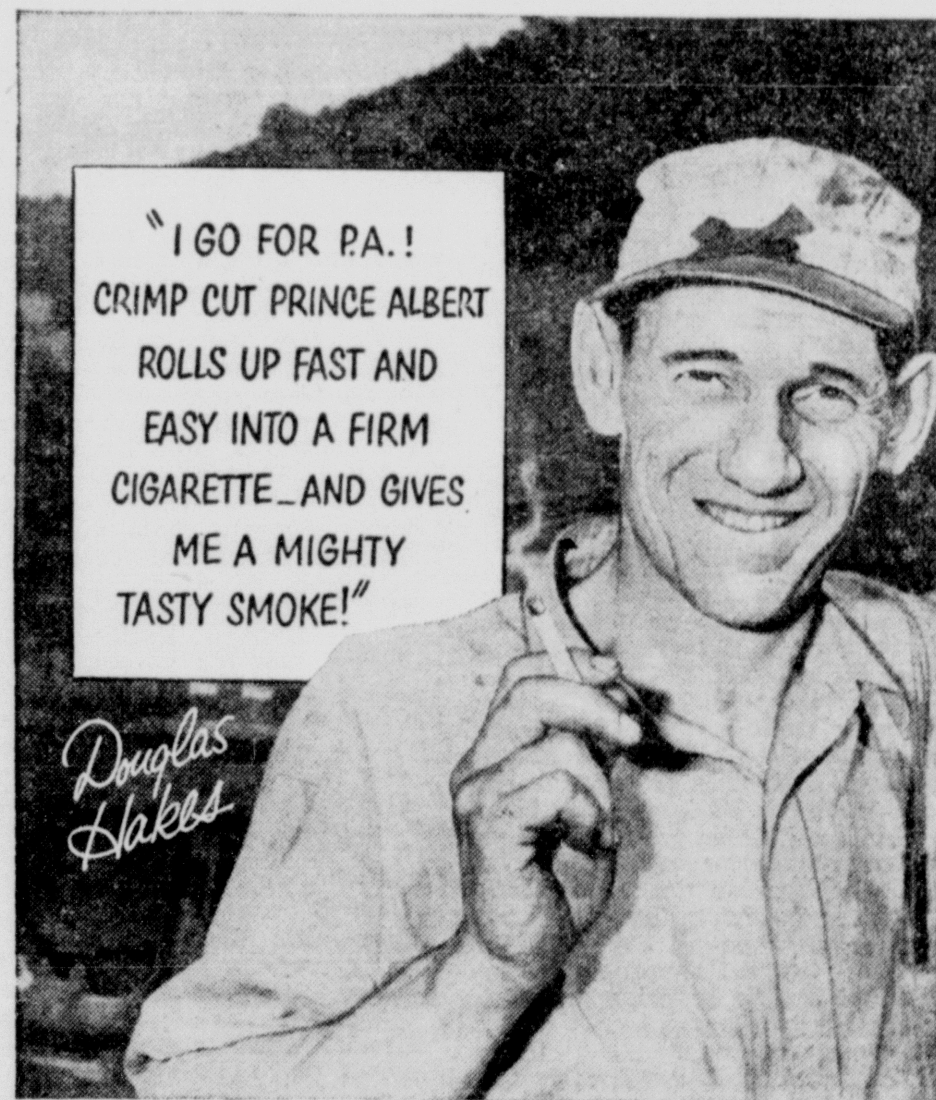

HOLLYWOOD NOTES — Eddie

Albert will appear in "The Fuller Brush Girl." At night he yapes his daily half hour radio show and between times prepares scripts for the educational films he produces . . . George Petty, whose life story comes to the screen as "The Petty Girl", takes time off from painting beautiful damsels each year by going big-game hunting in Africa . . .

Jeanne Crain will play a girl with spurs in her next picture. John Ford will direct it . . . Clifton Webb says he has given up the stage "irrevocably and forever." He is in pictures for as long as Hollywood will have him, he says.

"With crimp cut Prince Albert, it's easy to roll neat cigarettes," SAYS DOUGLAS HAKES, Farm Mechanic

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Prince Albert's choice, naturally mild tobacco is crimp cut for easier rolling of firm, neat cigarettes. And the humidor-top keeps P.A. fresh and rich-tasting for greater smoking joy.

The RANGE RIDER—and The EDITORS

By WELDON OWENS

R. H. WESSEL in The Frederick (Okla.) Press: "Olyus Hefner, four miles north of Frederick, caught an armadillo in his garden Friday night and brought it to the Frederick fire station where it is now in a cage. It is more than a foot in length from its long snout to its tail. It is well protected by bony armor, so jointed that it can move its body readily. It lives on ants and other insects, vegetation and carrion. It is very timid and tries to hide its head. When handled it tries to frighten its attacker by a queer sound."

FORTUNATE is the fire department to have such an animal. Over in East Texas during the depression, an armadillo's life wasn't worth the armor that protected it. Meat was too scarce. A possum or an armadillo wouldn't dare get out in the open until after dark. And most folks were well pleased with the taste. However, I'll never forget one fellow's complaint when they brought him into court for stealing a neighbor's possum from the case. The judge asked him: "How come you broke into that cage three times where Mr. Jones had his possums?" And the fellow answered, "Well, I got the possum the first time for my wife. And the other times was when I had to go back and change him for another."

NATHAN Bolton in The Morehouse (La.) Enterprise: "Ralph James, well known radio announcer on KTRY, has been promoted to program director, according to Bill Davis, station director. James is generally considered the best news announcer in northeast Louisiana and Southeast Arkansas."

I'VE ALWAYS wanted to be an announcer like Mr. James. I always felt like I had native talent. Mama could always yell so plain when she was calling us to do the dishes. And sometimes we would be half a mile away, down in the draw across the pasture. But I didn't inherit her more stentorian voice. The only time my voice sounded manly and deep was right after I took two teaspoons of sugar and turpentine for a light case of croup. So Mr. James is lucky to be called the best announcer in those parts. Maybe he'll go on up as manager, then owner. Finally he could be privileged to sign all the notes to refinance the radio station while television moves in with growing business.

ATASCOSA County (Tex.) Monitor: "In the last few days it has come to my hearing that I was a 'cheap skate', 'nickel hugger' and what have you, for not getting my name on the official ballot as a candidate for Justice of the Peace. This is erroneous and misleading. I was at George West as the dead line approached, and did not want to announce against W. J. Bowen. . . I did not know he was not going to run. (Signed) W. P. (Jeff) Stallings."

THE HON. Mr. Stallings shows some of what we need more of—Courtesy. Friendliness. Like a fellow I knew once who nearly went broke giving credit in the grocery business. His name was J. C. McSpadden, the finest Presbyterian who ever hit a church tenor tone. He was awfully friendly. He went fishing and they got all of his worms. He folded his gadgets back into the box, turned toward the creek with clasped hands and smilingly asked: "Now, will there be anything else this afternoon?"

Owens

CECIL O. WAGGONER in The Claude (Tex.) News: "Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hunter called at their home on Sunday afternoon in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary."

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter are products of adjoining communities in Collin County, Texas, near McKinney, where they were married at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Sneed on July 11, 1900. The first eight years of their married life was spent in teaching in Collin and Denton Counties. In search of a permanent home in a healthful climate, they came to the Texas Panhandle in 1908. They purchased a small farm southwest of Claude where they still live. They have three daughters, Miss Laura Grace Hunter of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Nora Leta Hargis, and Mrs. Frances Goggans, both of Austin, Texas; also three grand children."

THE RANGE RIDER congratulates the Hunters. Brother Hunter is lucky, too. It's an achievement to keep the same woman around the house for 50 years. They used to make wedding bands big and heavy—that was because they were supposed to last a long time. But the old-fashioned pattern of housewife is moving on. And few remain who would write the following verse:

Some girls just must have a career,
They sing, or act, or scribble ballads.
I much prefer to stay at home
And make cucumber salads.

LESLIE J. Herring in Beckham Co. (Okla.) Democrat: "While cleaning grass in his yard, Bill Clancy was bitten by a black widow spider. . . He said he felt a burning sensation on his right thumb, like a burning match head. He grabbed his thumb and squeezed the bite and three times he got a drop of water-like substance out of it . . . then went back to work. Next day the doctor lanced it and gave him a shot. Monday it was lanced again. He is better."

MR. CLANCY'S recovery is occasion for joy. The moral, of course, is to stay away from lawn duties. Man waters the grass to make it grow, then mows it down. He sweetens the tea, then sours it with lemon. Had tradition been allowed to survive, Mr. Clancy would not have encountered the black widow, anyway. Especially in his Oklahoma surrounding where so-called civilization moved in. But was it civilization? At that time, the squaw was doing not only the work on the lawn but in the field. Man knoweth not when he fareth well.

R. H. WESSEL in The Frederick (Okla.) Press: "Weekly newspapers probably give more to worthwhile causes, according to income than any other business, profession or what have you. While they do not have the bank account to give cash, they give publicity or service."

THAT'S NOT all, Mr. Wessel. The weekly newspaper editor is always the champion sitter-upper. Not baby-sitting. Our records show that more editors sit up with the sick and the dead than any other profession. And those who have a good insurance business on the side often can afford to lay off for all-day cemetery workings and other fast-fading community events. Yea, Brother Wessel, the country editor is famous for giving his widow's mite. As you say, he has no bank account. And no need. For his lot is to sweat and work and unlike the lucky doctor whose medicine is of no avail come face to face with his errors the morning after.

FRANK B. Knight in The Florence (Tex.) Post: "Take romance, for instance. Ever stop to watch the facial expression of a young couple? . . . The glow of pride on the face of a young maiden whose bow has just knocked over all the bottles on a carnival stand, or rung the bell of a strong man mallet exhibit can only be seen, not described."

BROTHER KNIGHT, you have brought to light in traditional fashion, another bit of food for thought. To few people realize the ecstasy of such pride. And it is well-founded. 'Tis hard to emerge victor. When I left home one summer to join a carnival, I doubled on the clarinet for a barker named Puss Doty. But my chief job was obscuring my little teen-age body behind a khaki tent where people paid a quarter to pitch three balls into a shallow barrel with a hole in it. They didn't know it, but the bottom of that keg was rawhide, and when the barker said the right word, I had to tighten the bottom of the barrel. Then the ball bounced out, the barker got the quarter, and waited for more players. Such training in my childhood was invaluable. It taught me coordination of muscle and mind—when the run during local police raids—when to listen for cues to loosen the rawhide and let a player win until the carnival man decided he had "caught" a sucker with this week's paycheck.

Papa found me the next week, and I returned to the drab life of eating regularly, building character and slopping next fall's ham hocks.

Man Who Made The Capitol Beautiful Will Be Honored

Constantino Brumidi, the virtually unknown artist whose paintings and frescoes have been viewed by millions in the United States Capitol.

Italian patriot, artist and lover of liberty—Brumidi devoted a lifetime to adorning the center stone of American democracy, only to die lonely and in poverty, forgotten by his adopted country, to which he came a refugee from European persecution, in 1852.

For 70 years his body has lain in an unmarked grave, lost to all but a few relatives until six years ago, when it was discovered by Myrtle Cheney Murdock, wife of Congressman John Murdock of Arizona.

Now Congress has voted to provide suitable recognition for the man whose great work will live as long as the Capitol stands. It has decided to erect a bronze and stone monument on Brumidi's grave in Glenwood Cemetery, in the nation's capital, and has arranged for its care and upkeep "in perpetuity."

Not Well Known

While Brumidi's name is known but to a few, his work is familiar to the countless thousands who have visited the Capitol.

His paintings and frescoes include Washington at Yorktown, which hangs in the chamber of the House of Representatives; Washington at Valley Forge, the Battle of Lexington, the Death of General Wooster, the Storming of Stony Point and the Boston Massacre.

Brumidi spent 25 years decorating the Capitol, from 1855 until his death in 1880. Probably his most exquisite work is to be found in the President's Room, just off the Senate Chamber, where he spent six years.

His greatest work was the decoration of the ceiling of the rotunda, the great vaulted chamber underneath the dome. At the age of 60 he completed the task of painting 4,664 square feet of concave fresco, working 180 feet above the floor.

The giant figures making up the "Apotheosis of Washington" can be seen from below in all the brilliance of their color 85 years after he completed them, in 1865.

Last Great Work

At 72, an old man with snow-white hair and beard, he began his last great work in the Capitol he loved so well, the painting of the 15 scenes from American history for a frieze encircling the rotunda, 58 feet above the floor.

One day, a tired old man of 74, driven on only by his indomitable will, he slipped. His weary fingers grasped the scaffolding as he fell and there he hung by his fingers suspended in air until workmen reached him.

He never recovered from the shock, but died in his studio, Feb. 10, 1880, lonely and in poverty. A few friends buried him in an unmarked grave.

The Capitol guides point out to the thousands who each day visit the scene of his last great work the gap in the frieze which to this day has never been completed.

The recognition that Congress is now preparing to pay Brumidi, 70 years after his death, is due to the unselfish and untiring work of Mrs. Murdock, who spent almost 14 years in research in an effort to recreate a famous American figure.

It was Mrs. Murdock who induced her husband to introduce the bill to erect a monument on Brumidi's grave.

SPORTS

As the major league pennant races passed the halfway mark, the World Champion N. Y. Yankees found themselves in a dual battle: (1) to try to overhaul the leading Detroit Tigers; (2) to avoid being overtaken themselves by the Indians and Red Sox.

THOUGH NO baseball man had expected the Yanks to make a run-away of the race, most of them agree the club's plight can be traced to the comparative failure of three key operatives: Joe Page, Tommy Henrich and Joe DiMaggio. Ironically, this season each of these is getting the highest salary of his career. Henrich, who signed a $45,000 contract, has been sidelined with an injured knee. His pinch-hit home runs have saved several games, but the fact remains that Tommy has appeared in fewer than half the Yankee games despite the efforts of trainer Gus Mauch (whose work in keeping the Yankees fit is told in the current Look).

PAGE, WHOSE brilliant 1949 achievements won him a $35,000 contract—highest ever given to a relief pitcher—is no longer the clutch hurler who can be depended on to protect slim leads. In 35 innings this season Page has given 39 hits and walked as many batters as he's whiffed—22.

IT MAY be odd to refer to a ball-player who has hit 17 home runs and driven in 63 tallies as being in a slump, but Joe DiMaggio is a special case. DiMag has two standards to live up to: his own superb marks, set in 11 big league years, and his $100,000 salary, highest ever paid to any Yankee and second in all baseball only to Ted Williams' reported $125,000.

A .259 batting average, an inability to come through consistently in the clutch as he once did, an infinitesimal slowing up of super-reflexes—these are enough to make experts wonder if Joe is really passing his peak. Now 35, Joe recently was asked if he thought he was good for five more years. "That's too many, I'm afraid," he said. "But I want to play as long as I can."

Balk Rule Cause It

The strict enforcement of the balk rule in baseball had Catcher Harry Eastwood, of the San Francisco Seals, guessing. His pitchers were violating the rule regularly. How to stop it was the question that bothered him.

Then one day a ripple of laughter went through the stands. Eastwood had come on the field with the word "Stop" printed upon his chest protector. Now every Seal pitcher comes to a full-second halt at the end of each wind-up. Result: No more balks. Everyone is happy.

Fish Fighting Sport

Fish fighting has been the national sport of Siam for hundreds of years. Breeders of the 2½-inch fighters (known as betta or paradise fish) give them exacting care—like that given pedigreed dogs or Thoroughbred horses in the United States. Big contests draw huge crowds and the Siamese bet large sums of money and even their wives or children on their favorites. The king reaps a handsome income from the sport. He licenses all promoters.

Babe Ruth Made Less, But He Carried Home A Lot More

When the late Babe Ruth was at the peak of his baseball career in 1931 his salary was $80,000 for the year and his "take home" pay was $68,535.

Today, Ted Williams draws an estimated salary of $125,000 annually as a baseball star for Boston, yet his net after taxes is only $62,028.

"No matter how illiterate our baseball fans may be on the fundamental economics underlying the inflation that has already taken place, here are some dollars and cents facts about our own 'Reddy Williams' that can be clearly understood and which I believe they would like to know," an expert writes.

"Ted receives an estimated $125,-

000 salary this year compared with Babe Ruth's top salary of $80,000 in 1931. But Ted's net after taxes will be $62,028 in 1950 as against $68,535 for Ruth in 1931. Finally: Ted can buy only a little over half (57 per cent) of what Ruth could buy because of the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar during the past 20 years. To obtain the same buying power as Ruth, Ted would have to be paid no less than $327,-451!

"May all baseball fans, whether in the ball park or watching over their TV sets (paid for or bought on credit), ponder what future salaries will have to be to equal their own present dollar salaries in terms of what those dollars will buy."

Don't Fear Snakes Is Advice of The Experts

Millions of Americans will visit national and state parks, go on picnics in the woods or fish on streams and lakes this summer. Regardless of where they go, there is the likelihood that they will encounter snakes.

But naturalists will tell you: Don't fear snakes.

They do insist that persons in the outdoors should understand and respect snakes. If they do, the chance of being bitten by a snake of some poisonous variety is almost nil.

In the first place, there are few poisonous snakes in this country.

Ones that possess deadly venom include members of the rattlesnake family, copperheads, water moccasins, and the coral snake.

There are dozens of kinds of non-poisonous snakes, however.

Any persons who spend much time in the outdoors, naturalists say, will do well to become familiar with the appearance of poisonous snakes they may encounter and which they will wish to avoid.

The principles of safety from poisonous snakes are simple.

Wear high leather boots when traveling in snake country. Be careful where you put your feet or hands, or where you sit or lie down, when in fields or woods.

Most snakes will get out of your sight with amazing speed if they are given the chance. They seem to know that man is their most deadly enemy.

If you do happen to get bitten by a poisonous snake, use a sharp knife to make incisions, to induce bleeding, at the points where the fangs entered the skin. Do not take alcoholic stimulants. And get to a doctor for proper treatment as quickly as possible.

If you travel or work in areas where there are many poisonous snakes, equip yourself with an anti-venom kit, which contains full and easily understood directions for its ready use.

It's On Record

It is on record that a man can:
Live without sleep for 115 hours.
Live without food 75 days.
Stay under water for 6 minutes, 29 seconds.
Dive below water to 500 feet.
Walk on his hands 16 miles per day for 55 days.
Have a family of 44 children.

The Tiger Staff Ace

One of major league baseball's grandest pitchers is Dizzy Trout, of the Detroit Americans, whose team currently is in the labor of a great battle for first place in the league. When this was written Diz had won four games and lost one, and his enthusiastic team-mates were playing great ball.

Millions of fans all over America, tired of seeing the New York Yankees take the pennant, are hoping the rejuvenated Tigers will come through this time. The race seems to be a triangular one among the Yankees, the Boston Red Sox, and the Tigers.
